SHRIMP

- 1 pound large shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 6 tablespoons hot sauce, such as Frank's, divided
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon zest, from 1 large lemon
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

GOAT CHEESE DIPPING SAUCE

- 1 tablespoon extra virgin olive oil
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped shallot
- 1/4 teaspoon cumin
- 1/4 teaspoon smoked paprika
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 1/3 teaspoon kosher salt
- 4 ounces fresh goat cheese
- 1 tablespoon chopped chives
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley

STEPS

1. In a medium bowl, toss the shrimp with 4 tablespoons of the hot sauce, garlic, lemon zest and oil. Cover with plastic wrap and allow to sit at room temperature for 15 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, heat a small saucepan over medium heat. Add the olive oil and shallots and sauté the shallot for about two minutes. Add the spices and continue to cook, stirring with a wooden spoon, for one more minute.
3. Add the heavy cream and salt. Reduce the heat to low and simmer for about 5 minutes; it should thicken slightly. Whisk in the goat cheese a little at a time until fully incorporated and smooth. Remove from the heat, cool for 5 minutes, and stir in the herbs.
4. Preheat your grill or grill pan to medium high heat. Season the shrimp with the salt and grill for about 2 to 3 minutes per side or until opaque all the way through.
5. Remove to a clean bowl and toss with the remaining hot sauce. Serve with the goat cheese dipping sauce.

Heart-healthy tip: The shrimp themselves are lean. The heavy cream in the dip is where most of the saturated fat is, so go easy on the dip or try it with half-and-half.
