Serves 6

Total 2+ hr (corn soaks overnight)

INGREDIENTS

- 4 ears of corn
- 1 garlic clove (minced)
- 1 jalapeño (seeds and ribs removed; minced)
- 3 limes (zest and juice)
- 1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 ripe Hass avocado (peeled and diced)
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes (halved)
- 6 scallions (white and green parts; thinly sliced)
- 3/4 cup fresh cilantro (chopped)
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper

STEPS

1. Soak the ears of corn in their husks overnight in salted water.
2. Heat a charcoal or gas grill to medium-low.
3. Put the soaked ears, still in their husks, on the grill and close the lid. Cook for 20 minutes.
4. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, combine the garlic, jalapeño, and a large pinch of salt. Add the lime zest and juice and whisk in the olive oil. Add the avocado, tomatoes, scallions and cilantro and gently toss.
5. Remove the corn from the grill and let it cool enough to handle. Peel off and discard the husks. Working over the salad bowl, cut the kernels from the cobs and add them to the salad. Toss to combine and season with salt and pepper to taste.

Heart-healthy tip: Avocado and olive oil are the good kinds of fat, so this side is already heart-friendly. It's a great match for steak night.
