Half-and-Half Veggie Sausage Breakfast Casserole

One pan, two ways: veggies all over, sausage on just one half

Illustration

Serves 6 to 8
Pan 9x13
Oven 350°F
Bake 45–50 min

INGREDIENTS

- 1 onion, diced
- 2 bell peppers, diced
- 8 oz mushrooms, sliced
- About 6 cups cubed bread, or 1 bag (30 oz) frozen hash browns
- ½ lb sausage, cooked and crumbled
- 10 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- About 1 tsp mustard
- Salt and pepper
- About 1 cup shredded cheddar

STEPS

1. Sauté the onions, peppers, and mushrooms.
2. Layer the cubed bread or frozen hash browns in a greased 9x13 pan.
3. Spread the veggies over the whole thing.
4. Add the cooked, crumbled sausage to just one half.
5. Whisk the 10 eggs with the milk, salt, pepper, and a little mustard, and pour it over everything.
6. Top with about a cup of cheddar.
7. Bake at 350°F for 45 to 50 minutes, until the center is set.

Serves 6 to 8. Amounts for the veggies, bread or hash browns, sausage, and cheddar are standard estimates.

Heart-healthy tip: Use half whole eggs and half egg whites, skim milk, and turkey sausage, and go lighter on the cheese. You keep the flavor with less saturated fat and cholesterol.
