Steak Sushi

Rick McGee's original, a family favorite

Rick's photo

Grill 500°F, about 30 min
Rest 20 min+

STEAK ROLL

- 2 thin-sliced rib-eye steaks
- 1 avocado
- 1 brick (8 oz) cream cheese
- 1 jalapeño
- Cooking spray
- 3 toothpicks

SEASONING #1

- Your favorite steak seasoning

SEASONING #2: CUSTOM CORIANDER BLEND

- 2 Tbsp sugar
- 2 Tbsp coriander
- 1 tsp salt

SAUCE

- 1 cup plain Greek yogurt
- 1 Tbsp Sriracha
- 2 splashes Worcestershire

STEAK ROLL

1. Place the steak between two sheets of plastic wrap and pound it thinner, into roughly a square. Remove the top wrap.
2. Sprinkle with your favorite steak seasoning.
3. Spread the cream cheese mixture evenly over the meat.
4. Roll the meat up into a log and secure it with 3 toothpicks.
5. Spray with cooking spray and sprinkle with the custom coriander seasoning.
6. Grill at 500°F for about 30 minutes, turning halfway.
7. Let it rest at least 20 minutes before cutting so it firms up.
8. Slice into rounds. Sprinkle with more seasoning if you like and drizzle with the sauce.

SAUCE

1. Mix the sauce ingredients together.

Cream cheese mixture = softened cream cheese with mashed avocado and minced jalapeño mixed in.

Source didn't list servings or prep time.

> Heart-healthy tip: The Greek yogurt sauce is already a smart, lighter swap. For the filling, Neufchâtel or light cream cheese works great and cuts the saturated fat.