Serves 6

Total 15 to 30 min

INGREDIENTS

- 4 tablespoons kosher salt
- 1 tablespoon granulated sugar
- 1 tablespoon toasted and ground coriander
- 4 beef rib-eye steaks, 1 pound each (preferably dry-aged USDA Prime)
- Olive oil
- Crushed red pepper flakes (to taste)

STEPS

1. Combine the salt, sugar and coriander.
2. Rub into the steaks.
3. Heat a charcoal or gas grill to medium-high. Drizzle steaks with olive oil.
4. Grill the steaks to the desired doneness, 3 to 5 minutes per side for medium-rare. Remove from the grill and let rest, uncovered, for 10 minutes.
5. If desired, drizzle cutting surface with olive oil, additional coriander, salt, and crushed red pepper flakes.
6. Slice steaks before serving warm.

Tip from source: Planning ahead and seasoning overnight makes the steak even more juicy and delicious the next day.

Heart-healthy tip: Rib eye is a well-marbled cut. Keep portions around 4 to 6 oz, trim the outer fat, and serve it with the Grilled Corn Salad or a green salad.
