Serves 4

BURGERS

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1/4 cup minced white onion
- 1 medium garlic clove, minced
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh Italian parsley leaves
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped fresh mint leaves
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 4 burger buns or ciabatta bread cut in half
- Cucumber and Cumin Yogurt Relish (below)

CUCUMBER & CUMIN YOGURT RELISH

- 6 medium Kirby cucumbers, peeled, halved lengthwise, and seeded
- 1 1/2 teaspoons kosher salt
- 1/4 cup Greek-style yogurt or sour cream
- 2 tablespoons white wine or red wine vinegar
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh Italian parsley leaves
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped fresh mint leaves
- 2 teaspoons granulated sugar
- 1 teaspoon whole coriander seed, crushed to a powder
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper

BURGERS

1. Combine all of the ingredients except the bread and relish in a large bowl and mix until evenly incorporated. Form into 4 patties.
2. Heat a grill pan or outdoor grill to medium (about 350°F to 450°F). Once hot, cook the burgers about 10 minutes per side, or until the juices run clear and the patties are firm to the touch.
3. Place the burgers on the buns, top with relish, and serve.

RELISH

1. Cut cleaned cucumbers into small dice and place in a colander set over a mixing bowl. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon of the kosher salt and toss to coat. Weight down with a plate and drain 10 minutes, pressing occasionally.
2. Meanwhile, combine yogurt, vinegar, parsley, mint, sugar, coriander, cumin, cayenne, and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt in a medium bowl, stirring until combined.
3. Blot cucumbers with paper towels, add to yogurt mixture, and stir to combine. Taste and adjust seasoning as desired.

> Heart-healthy tip: Make the patties with 90% lean beef or ground turkey, and use the Greek yogurt option in the relish rather than sour cream.
